Annual Recognition Awards

Guidelines for Submitting Nominations

Dear SF Bay Area ITE Member,

The San Francisco Bay Area Section of the Institute of Transportation Engineers is accepting nominations for the 2008 Annual Recognition Awards. Nominations are being accepted for the following two categories:

1. 2008 Transportation Professional of the Year

The purpose of this award is to recognize an ITE member who has contributed significantly to the transportation field within the past year. This candidate could be from a wide spectrum of choices, including (but not limited to) someone who has:

- (1) Been a project manager of a high profile project;
- (2) Played a significant role in a project;
- (3) Been an outstanding mentor for students;
- (4) Encouraged new innovations/services/products to benefit the field of transportation.

The nominee must be a member of the ITE San Francisco Bay Area Section during the period of September 1, 2007 to August 31, 2008. If a selected nominee is not an ITE member, he/she will need to become a member in order to be eligible for the award.

2. 2008 Transportation Project of the Year

The purpose of this award is to recognize innovation and/or creative-thinking in the field of transportation. This could include projects that either:

- (1) Implemented ground-breaking ideas; or
- (2) Developed new services/processes; or
- (3) Implemented innovative design or planning.

The award aims to recognize projects (or phases within very large projects) with a completion date between September 1, 2007 and August 31, 2008, and taking place within the geographic area covered by the following counties: Alameda, Contra Costa, Del Norte, Humboldt, Marin, Mendocino, Monterey, Napa, San Benito, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Solano, Sonoma and Sonora.

Awards Recognition:

Selected winners will be recognized with a commemorative plaque at the SF Bay Area Section ITE meeting in January 2009 and will be featured on the Section website at www.sfbayite.org

Nomination forms are due by 5:00pm on Monday, November 17, 2008.
