

Panel Discussion: The Future of Congestion Pricing in SF Bay Area

Thursday, April 20, 2006

Students from across the Bay Area are currently participating in a Student Paper Contest with the topic "The Future of Congestion Pricing in the SF Bay Area". Contest winners will participate in a student panel on congestion pricing at our next ITE meeting. This will also be an opportunity for mentors and mentees to get together as part of the Students in Transportation Engineering and Planning (STEP) Program.

GUEST MODERATOR

Rock Miller, ITE International Director for District 6, will moderate the student panel discussion on the future of congestion pricing in the Bay Area.
