Transportation and Climate Change

Public Transit: BART at 12th Street Oakland City Center Station or AC Transit (www.511.org)

Thursday, January 21, 2010

This meeting will feature the following presentations:

- ✚ This presentation will focus on greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions and transportation issues from a national perspective. The discussion will describe how transportation agencies need to look at adaptation, mitigation and NEPA issues.
- ✚ The second presentation will discuss how the Bay Area's regional agencies are approaching the preparation of a Sustainable Communities Strategy pursuant to SB 375. A Sustainable Communities Strategy is an integrated land-use and transportation plan aimed at accommodating economic and population growth while reducing GHG emissions from automobiles and light trucks.
